(For Additional Local Items see Fifth Page.)

A FALSE PRETENDER.—At the Central Station yesterday, a young man of rented appearance, was charged with obtaining goods under false representations. He had been arrested at the Kensington Depot, as he was about to leave for New York. It was testified that he had called at the store of Messrs. Rockhill & Wilson, and ordered goods to the amount of $3000, representing himself to be from Huntsville, Alabama. He said he intended to pay cash for the clothing, as he had sold a plantation near Huntsburg quite recently. Upon leaving, he was permitted to take a suit of boy's clothes with him, for a son, which was done. He was to call the next morning and pay for the goods, which he did not do.

There was also testimony to show that he called at the store of De Courcy, Breyer & Co., selected a dozen pairs of fine, well-dressed, and a dozen woolen shirts, and took two pairs of drawers and two shirts out of the bundle. As at the first-named store, he was to call on the following day and pay for them, but he did not. He there represented himself to be from Huntsville, Ala.

Similar representations were made at the clothing store of G. W. Reed & Co., where he ordered from him to the amount of $1000 worth of goods; also at the store of E. H. Tager & Co., dealers in hosiery, where goods were ordered, and at which a handsome knit shirt was obtained. All of the articles he got from stockholders and returned to him after the fire. He was arrested, his name said to be J. E. Walker, but he represented himself to be E. A. Bruist, of the firm of Bruist & Co. He was committed in default of bail for trial.

WHO KINDLED THE FIRE?—J. Lightcap, proprietor of a shoe shop at Front and George streets, had a partial hearing at the Central Station yesterday, in connection with the fire at his shop, which was about 5 o'clock yesterday morning.

Fire Marshal Blackburn testified that the defendant occupies the house as a dwelling and a shop; that he has a fair stock; and that the stock fixtures, and household goods are insured in the Royal or Standard office. The fire broke out at the alarm of fire was given, defendant, his brother-in-law, and a child were found dressed, the other members of the family being out of the city; that the fire was confined to some shelves in the store; and that the stock was damaged by water to the extent of about 60 or 75 per cent of its value.

The explanation the accused gave of the fire was that it had been done by an enemy of his from the outside, and pointed to a hole in the shutter-box as the place through which the fire had been pushed. A burglar-remover was in the box, and defendant said that the hole had been made with it. The Fire Marshal gave it as his opinion that the hole had been made from the inside, and he asked for time to produce an expert to show it. The handle of the burglar-remover had been temporarily fitted to it, and the witness said that similar pieces of wood were in the cellar of the house.

The Fire Marshal further testified that all the personal property of defendant not insured was on his person when the fire broke out. The case went over for a further hearing on Monday next.

A WATCH LIFTER.—Morris Harris was arrested on the charge of pocket-picking on one of the Walnut and Chestnut streets cars. George Thomas, of Germantown, testified that he was a passenger on one of the Walnut street cars, and saw the defendant with one of his arms across his breast, and the other hand raised with money in it. Witness missed his watch, and gave the alarm, whereupon the accused ran, and was overtaken at the corner of Walnut street, and walking down Walnut street after the witness, the watch was slipped into his coat pocket.

Hiram W. Porter, of Connecticut, testified that he was on the same car, and that his watch was stolen at about Fifth and Walnut streets. There was a crowd about the time, and he believed the defendant, Harris, was one of them, but he would not swear to it.

Reserve officer Croat testified that in April last he arrested defendant in a robbery at a picture store during an auction sale of pictures, on the allegation that he had picked a pocket. At that time Harris gave bail for a further hearing, but did not make his appearance at the time fixed, and a warrant was given as a reason for it. He was at large up to yesterday.

FITTING OUT A BOARDING-HOUSE.—John and Susan Williams had a hearing on the charge of larceny. Arthur Thatcher, of the firm of Reeder & Thatcher, testified that the defendants came into the store on Fourth street, and represented that the female was a boarding-house keeper and wanted to buy some knives. Some desert knives were shown them, and while they were examining them, the female came from the counter in a way to conceal the man. This excited the suspicion of Mr. Thatcher, and he looked more closely and discovered the man slipping a package of fine cutlery in his pocket. The package he had in his hand was dropped into the sewer. Defendants were committed for trial by Alderman Beiler. The stolen package was worth about thirty dollars.

ASSASSINATIONS IN THE FIRST DISTRICT.—The assessment in the First District for the month of July amount to the following sums, according to the report of the Revenue Assessor, Mr. Frazier:

Table with 2 columns: Tax on manufacturers' productions, Tax on houses, cigars, and tobacco, and Increase over July, 1865.

THE BOILER EXPLOSION.—Coroner Taylor has held an inquest on the body of Lemuel Clendenen, engineer of the tug-boat Tenepet, who died from the effects of scalding caused by the explosion of the boiler. It was found that the boiler had been inspected about fifteen days before the occurrence, and that the engineer was thoroughly competent. The cause of the explosion was not known. A verdict of accidentally killed was rendered.

A PANTALON CASE.—Charles Maister was arrested yesterday, by Officers Benkert and Cullum, upon the charge of the larceny of a pair of pantaloons from the No. 1000 car, No. 111 N. Third street, where he was employed as porter. The pantaloons were found secreted under his vest. Maister had a hearing before Alderman Beiler, and was committed.

FIRE.—Yesterday afternoon, about half-past 1 o'clock, an alarm of fire was created by a partial burning of the house No. 25 N. Seventh street. Another alarm was created by the half-past 2 o'clock, by the blowing out of the head of a whisky still, No. 1725 Jones street. In both cases the loss was of a trifling character.

LIGHT-FINGERED.—Alderman Godbow yesterday held Thomas Murray and George Thompson to bail to answer the larceny of a pocket-book.
